

13 teams at the World Cup come from Europe, and 8 come from Africa.

How many teams is that altogether?

$$13 + 8 =$$

England score 62 goals.

Then Harry Kane gets another goal.

How many is that now?

$$62 + 1 =$$

Write a sentence with the word ball in it.

Remember your full stop and capital letter!

Motty spent £18 at a match on food and his ticket. The ticket cost £11, so how much did he spend on food?

$$18 - ? = 11 \text{ or } 18 - 11 = ?$$

Punctuate these sentences:

(i) football is fun

(ii) motty scored a goal

(iii) the desert is hot

England have scored 9 goals in three games and 5 goals in another.

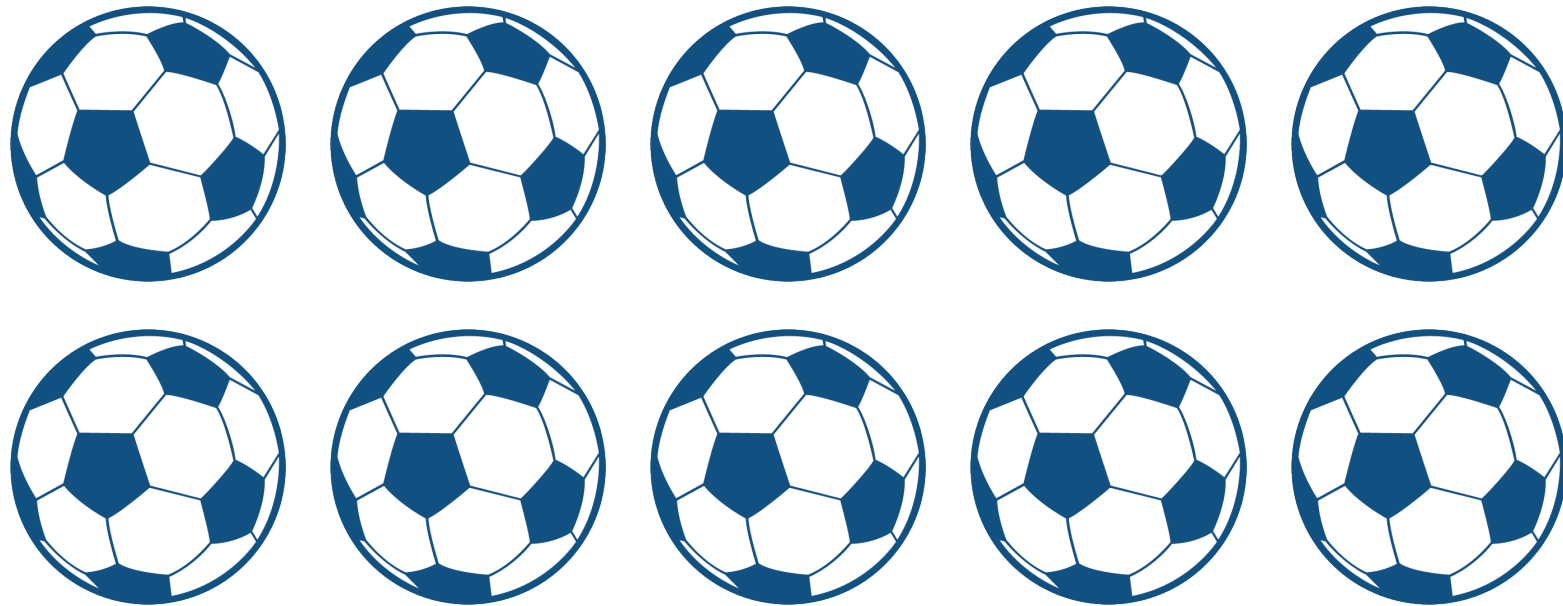

How many goals is that altogether?

$$9 + 5 =$$

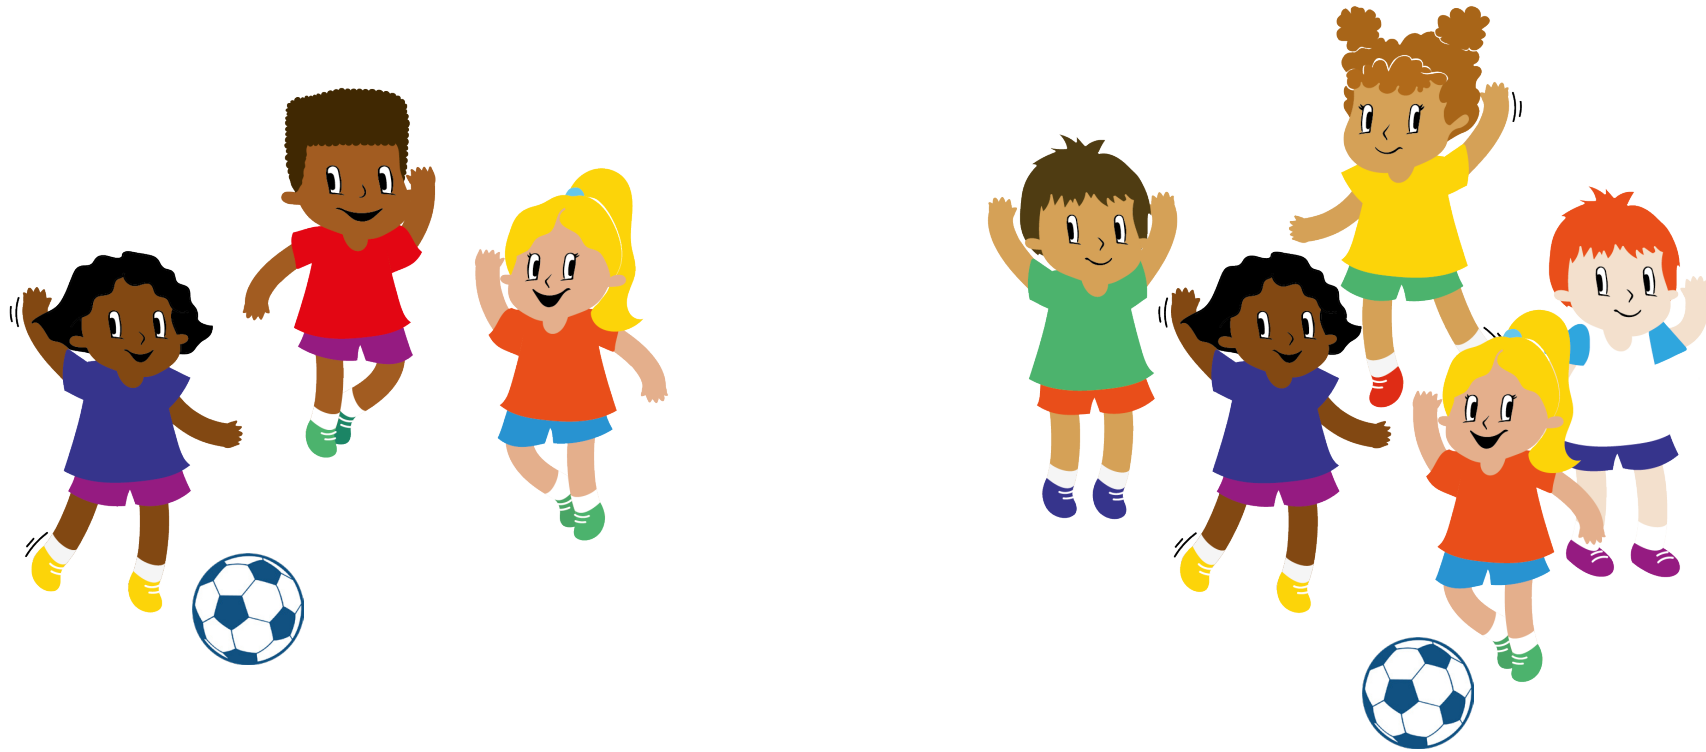

Qatar is a hot country in the desert and by the sea. There are lots of new shops and hotels there.

Write what you would like to do most if you went to Qatar.

How many balls are there?

Which team has more players?

Motty is going to watch England's first match with one of his friends.

The tickets are £8 each.

How much will they spend on match tickets altogether?

$$8 + 8 =$$

Put a question mark (?)
or exclamation mark (!)
at the end of each sentence:

I scored a goal

Will Motty win the cup

$$16 - \text{soccer ball} = 9$$

Which sentence could be true?

A team of rabbits will win the World Cup.

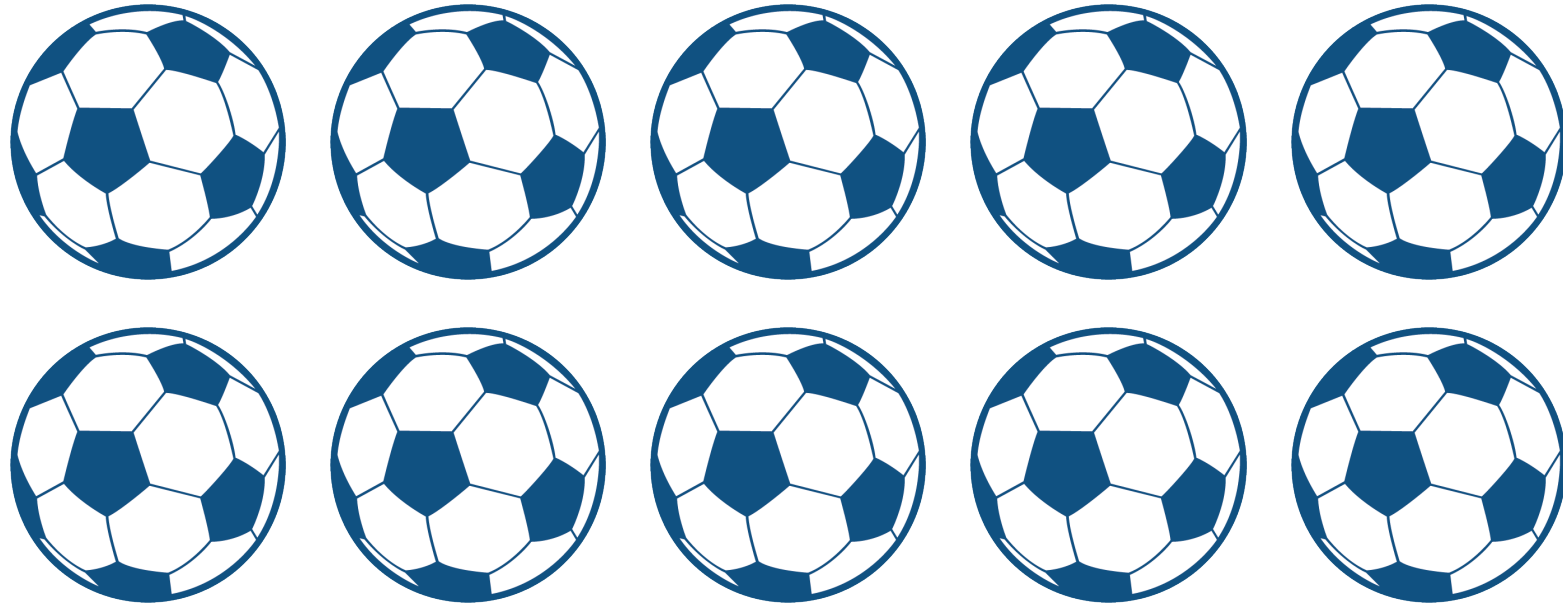

England will win the World Cup.

Motty has collected 7 stickers and only needs 13 more to complete his collection. How many stickers will he have altogether?

$$13 + 7 =$$

Use the word goal in a sentence about Motty.

Find half of these balls:

England play their first match the day after Sunday.

What day is it?

Motty bought a toy mascot for £9
and a Qatar World Cup cap for £7.

How much did he spend?

$$9 + 7 =$$

Write one way
Motty can keep fit for the World Cup.

What time is kick-off?

